An idea to survey members about potential donations was shelved until next month.

Donations toward Sidney courts will get a tax receipt from Sidney.

President/Facilities Report

North Saanich staff are researching ways to monitor the courts at Wain Rd. and will report to council next month.

The requested reports were sent to Sidney with no reply at this time.

Old Business

Looking at piggybacking on the PCO website.

The new rules are going well on Facebook. A few people have not agreed to the rules and were not accepted.

Heather Gartshore responded to our request about the Strategic Planning Process for Peninsula Recreation Commission. All stakeholders will be invited to participate.

The meeting with the Chief Engineer at North Saanich established a working relationship. He has Cathy and Annie's contact information to discuss future issues as they arise. People playing outside court hours may cause council to take further action prior to the agree Nov. 2 review.

New Business

Fees will be held at 0 from June to December until we change our fiscal year at the AGM.

Cathy will attend a Zoom meeting regarding youth in Pickleball hosted by PCBC.

We support use of funds by PCBC to prepare a tournament care kit.

Rod will organize partners to monitor the Wain Rd. Courts on Sundays at 4:00 to inform players of the hours of play and the issues with neighbours.

Sheena requested we write a letter to the editor of Peninsula News. It was declined at this time as it was felt the information was already addressed.
